POPE PIUS X WILL PLEAD FOR PEACE

Pontiff is Preparing an Encyclical to be Issued August 9th.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

Will Urge Catholics to Enter Movement to Bring About Pacific Conditions Everywhere.

Rome, July 25.—Pope Pius, who a few months ago was believed to be on his death bed, today was busily engaged in the preparation of a plea for international peace, which he intends to be the most important encyclical on his pontifical reign.

The encyclical will be formally issued on August 9. the tenth anniversary of the holy father's installation as successor to the late Pope Leo XIII.

The document will contain an urgent plea summoning the Catholic church everywhere to a world-wide effort for permanent international peace. It will call on the archbishops and bishops to begin the propoganda immediately, and will instruct the legates to those governments diplomatically related to the Vatican to make formal representations to the sovereigns of those nations urging their participation in the movement for universal peace.

SPLIT SKIRT SAVES WEARER.

Tardies Her to Escape Steer That Tramples a Hobbled Woman.

Pittsburgh, July 25.—Subjected to abuse and vilification the first model arrived here from Parisian modistes, the slashed skirt came in for its share of commendation , when Miss Helen Grasmeth, gowned in one of the lattest patterns of the expose gown, was able to escape the onslaught of a maddened steer, while Mrs. Harvey Wallace, who wore one of the obsolete hobble gowns, not being able to run fast enough, went down and was tramped by the maddened animal.

The steer was of the long-horned Texas variety. When it startd his headlong dash down Frankstown avenue it headed straight for Miss Grasmeth and Mrs. Wallace, who were walking along, not far apart. Hearing the animal close behind them, both women started to run, and, aided by the generous slash in her gown, which enabled her to get into long stride quickly, Miss Grasmeth succeeded in getting out of the steer's way.

Mrs. Wallace, impeded by the hobble skirt, was not so fortunate. Her shortened strides failed to carry her out of harm's way, and the infuriated animal hit her fairly in the back, knocked her down and trampled over her. Fortunately, the maddened animal continued on his way, going through the big plate glass window of Jacob Grossman's department store. Mrs. Wallace was severely injured.

NEGRO MOLESTS WOMEN.

Attacks Mother And Daughter on Road, But is Frightened Off.

Wilmington, Del., July 25.—Walking along the Newport turnpike, near their home at Bellemoor Park, Mrs. Anna Braunstein and her daughter, Edith, were attacked by a negro, who caught Mrs. Braunstein by the arm and began to make threats against her and her daughter.

The women screamed and the negro fled Mr. Braunstein who was sitting on the porch at his house, heard the cries and ran down the road, not knowing that it was his wife and daughter who had been threatened until he reached their side. He organized a posse from the men of the vicinity, and they searched the entire section of country for several hours, but failed to vacate th negro. Both women were badly frightened, but not injured, with the exception of a bruise on Mrs. Braunstein's arm where the man caught her.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Twenty-five men who quit work at E. T. Wright, shoe factory at Rockland, Mass., gave as the reason for the strike the fact that their view of the scenery surrounding the shop has been cut off by cheesecloth screens which had been tacked over the windows.

Southern rebels, reported to number 10,000, attacked Kiangnan arsenal at Shanghai, at 3o'clock Wednesday morning. The defenders, not exceeding 2,000, were strongly intrenched, and assisted by the navy, repelled three separate attacks. The fighting lasted until 7:30 o'clock. According to the first estimates, 600 rebels were killed. Later estimates place the casualties at 1,000, for the most part innocent peasants. The flagship Hai-Chu poured a deadly fire in the attacking forces. Another attack was also repulsed at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, the southerners unable to gain any ground.

Thirteen-year-old Christian Thompson, "camping out," Wednesday with companions on the beach near his home, at Port Reading, N. J., fired blindly with his small rifle at a clump of bushes close to the camp from which three revolver shots had sounded, and shot his own father, through the heart, killing him instantly. John Thompson, the father, director of a local loan and savings company, had gone to the camp to awaken the boys, and presumably thought it would be a joke to do it by simulating a bandit attack. Alarmed by the shots, young Thompson blazed away with his rifle with fatal result. The grief-stricken lad was not arrested.

One man was blown from a traveling crane into the Delaware river and drowned, while property in all sections of the city of Philadelphia was damaged by a severe wind and thunder stor myesterday which visited that city. Eigh tdeaths from heat were reported at the coroner's office. The maximum temperature of 90 degrees. Lightning shattered the flagpole on the tower of the Eastern penitentiary. The wall of a theatre being constructed in West Philadelphia was blown down by the wind and a force of 12 bricklayers had a narrow escape. Reports from Delaware and Southern New Jersey are to the effect that crops were considerably damaged by the storm.

William Corduan, whose wife was found beaten to death on Monday night in their home in Newark, N. J., was caught early yesterday morning. A few hours earlier officers had shot and killed William Butler, of Keensville, whom they assert fired at them when they mistook him for Corduan and ordered him to halt.

Rose Lahey, the 3-year-old daughter of Andrew Lahey, a farmer of Amenia, near Pougskeepsie, N. Y., it is believed has made a playmate of a big rattlesnake for several days. The baby has spent hours beside the stone doorstep, Lahey wondering what ailed his child, raised the stone yesterday and uncovered a reptile with 12 rattles. He killed the snake. The child was unharmed although she had been seen to put her hand through the hole through which the snake entered.

Four men and three girls, employes of the Canadian Explosive Company, at Beloiel, near Montreal, were literally blown to atoms yesterday when a ton of gunpowder suddenly exploded.

Incendiarism and mutiny again ruled Sing Sing prison at Ossining, N. Y., yesterday and by night the villagers of Ossining were in such a state of alarm over a possible jail delivery that communications were sent to the naval and land militia nearby to be ready for an emergency.

The finding of the headless body of an apparently wel lto do young woman at sea, thirty miles east of the Georges Bank, by Captain Charles White, of the Gloucester fishing schooner Jennie H. Gilbert, is believed to reveal a possible death by violence on a craft, perhaps a trans-Atlantic liner. The body was found ten miles south of the southerly track of the trans-Atlantic steamships, about 170 miles out from Boston. Corsets of apparently expensive make, a black shirtwaist, portions of a dark green silk skirt, and high button boots were on the body.

POTOMAC OYSTER TO BE VINDICATED

Report of Joint Commission to be Sent to Governors of States.

TO MAKE WATER TEST

No Pollution Found in Oyster Beds Nearly Seventy Miles Below the City of Alexandria.

Richmond, Va., July 25.—The character of Potoma river oysters will be fully vindicated in a report of a joint commission to be submitted to Governor Mann shortly. The report has been agreed upon, though its full text will not be made public until it is submitted to the Governor of Virginia and the Governor of Maryland. The report will give in detail the results of three inspections of the oyster beds at different seasons of the year. In order to make assurance doubly sure, Governor Mann has requested Surgeon-General Blue, of the United State Public Health and Hospital service to have a careful examination made of the water of the Potomac river, and this is now in progress. When completed it will form a valuable basis on which the states of Virginia and Maryland can go before Congress and ask that proper equipment to purify or sterilize the sewerage of Washington city before it empties into the river.

Meanwhile, the oyster industry on the Potomac river has been greatly injured by the agitation. Some months ago an employe of the United States Department of Agriculture, after only a partial or superficial examination of the Potomac river oyster beds, made a report which seriously questioned their healthfulness. Alarmed by the possible danger to human health on the one hand, should the report be correct, and by the damage to a large industry on which many people were dependent for a living should it be incorrect, Governor Mann proposes a thorough investigation by experts representing Virginia, Maryland and the United States Government. Governor Goldsborough, of Maryland agreed, and the commission was made up of one bacteriologist and one chemist from each state and two officers from the United States Department of Agriculture. Somewhat to the disgust of the local authorities, former Secretary of Agriculture Wilson appointed as one of the government agents the man who had made the superficial examination and report which caused the trouble, thus putting him in a position of judging his own work.

Three times this commission has gone over the oyster beds on boats furnished by the Fish Commissioners of Virginia and Maryland. A great deal of laboratory work has been done and many samples examined. Of course, it required no technical skill to know that there was pollution in the Potomac river immediately below the mouth of the Washington city sewers. But the nearest oyster beds are nearly seventy miles down the Potomac from Washington, the river for the greater part of that way being a wide stretch of water, almost an arm of Chesapeake Bay.

While the test of the report is not yet available for publication, it is understood that in the main it will be an entire vindication of the Potomac river oyster beds; that it will recommend a line across the river above which no oysters be taken, and that it will recommend that no oysters be planted near the mouth of certain creeks.

The test of Potomac River water now being made under the direction of Surgeon General Blue, at the request of Governor Mann, are without special reference to the location of the oyster beds and form an entirely different kind of examination from that just completed by the oyster commission.

LONG-ESTABLISHED HOUSE.

Oldest Hardware Establishment in This Section of the Country.

Elsewhere in today's Gazette will be found the card of the Carlin-Hulfish Company Incorporated, which enjoys the distinction of being the oldest hardware house in this section of the country, and with the exception of E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, doubtless has the longest record of any continuous business in the city.

Beginning in a most modest way, the late Jas .F Carlin established the business in 1844 in a small store room across the street from the present location, and since then the concern has grown steadily until at the present time the business requires fourteen store rooms and four basements in the two three-story buildings, 313-315 King street, to properly supply their trade in the city and in all the adjacent counties of Virginia and Maryland.

Since the death of the founder in 1882, his example and sound business policy has been carefully followed, and the business today stands a monument to his spirit and influence as well as to the good judgment and energy of the present management.

The firm was incorporated in 1906, under the name of Carlin-Hulfish Co, with the officers as shown in their card.

The senior member of the firm Mr. Worth Hulfish, who has been President and treasurer since the incorporation, is today receiving the congratulations of his friends, on his completion of 50 years continuous service with this business, he having started when a boy with Mr. Jas. F. Carlin on July 25, 1863.

FINE OIL PAINTING.

The largest oil painting in Alexandria is now on exhibition in the store window of Brawner Bros., corner King and Washington streets. This oil painting was executed for the Corby Bakery Company by M. W. Trembley, an artist of Washington, who also modeled the heavy gold frame which encases the painting. The subject taken for the picture shows one of that old style type of mothers working in the kitchen of her country home engaged in baking what we all like, "Mother's Bread," that wholesome satisfying variety of the staff of life all love to eat.

The frame, about 8x10 feet in size and hand modeled in plaster on wood is covered with pure gold leaf. It will be on exhibtion in Brawner Bros., window for several days, and is illuminated at night by electric lights which show the painting to good advantage.

FOUR-YEAR-OLD EGGS EATEN.

But Experts Sleep on Diet Before Pronouncing Them Salable.

Trenton, N. J., July 25.—The case of the frozen eggs sized by the Federal inspectors three years ago as unfit for food, which has been juggled about in various courts since that time, and which now awaits the final decision of the State Board of Health as to whether they shall be released for sale, has been laid on the table for another week. The members of the State Board of Health, who recently heard an expert testify that the condemned eggs, although now nearly four years old, were still fit for food, courageously performed yesterday the official task of eating foodstuffs made from the eggs. They were taken to the State laboratory and custard pie, cakes and ice cream were prepared.

None of the members found the food objectionable, and they were on the point of giving the eggs a clean bill of health, when one member suggested that they "sleep on the matter before givinga decision."

LAMAR IS NOT SEEKING ARREST

Will it is Said, Fight Extradition from Washington to New York.

TO BE LEGAL BATTLE.

Indictment Has Been Returned Charging Him With Impersonating A Federal Officer.

Washington, July 25.—The United States Attorney's office in New York and David Lamar, "The Wolf of Wall Street," are in disagreement about an alleged intention on Mr. Lamar's part to go to New York today to be arrested. United States Attorney Snowden Marshall in New York announces that Mr. Lamar is going to appear in the metropolis this afternoon to accept service of a warrant. Mr. Lamar—here in Washington—says through counsel that he is not going to do any such thing and has no intention of returning at this time.

Mr. Lamar was in Washington at the Continental Hotel late this morning and his arrival in New York this afternoon became nearly a physical impossibility, unless he chartered a special train. It is understood that Mr. Lamar is not in such a hurry to be arrested that he will hire any specials.

It is now announced in New York that an indictment against Lamar has been returned. The only news in this is that the announcement is formally made. It has been understood for days that a true bill was returned as expected on the charge that Lamar impersonated a Federal officer when he called up Lewis Cass Ledyard on the telephone and said it was Congressman Mitchell Palmer talking.

Henry E. Davis, Lamar's counsel, also announces that, as forecast, he will sue for a writ of habeas corpus here if Lamar is arreseld in Washington, thus fighting extradition.

Lamar's counsel is out with a statement today saying that Lamar's defense will be that he did not impersonate a federal officer, but that a Congressman or Representative is a state officer. Mr. Davis pooh-poohs the whole case against his client.

DEATH DREAM REALIZED.

Workman's Crowbar Falls on Third Rail and he is Killed.

New York, July 25.—When James Burke, a trackman, went to work this morning on the Third Avenue elevated, he told of a nightmare he had had Wednesday night to Patrick Mahoney, a fellow-laborer.

"I was in the arms of gigantic apes,' 'said Burke. "All around me were gigantic figures, with red eyes and long, muscular arms. There were the teeth,fangs long, and yello wand the nails of the apes' hands, long and crooked like the beak of an eagle. The long crooked nails sank into my throat and the red eyes were close to mine and I felt heated breath issue from beneath the yellow fangs. I dreampt that I was choking, that the nails were cutting my throat."

"I didn't want to come to work today." he went on. "I thought it might be the last time."—

"You probably ate something that didn't agree with you," declared Mahoney cheerfully.

The men began work. Burke started to cross the tracks with a crowbar on his shoulder, missed his footing and stepped between two ties.

The crowbar, on which Burke retained his hold, fell on the "third rail." There was a flash and more than a hundred persons on the platforms at Chatham Square saw Burke's body straighten as the electric current passed through it. A doctor who responded to a call said death had been instantaneous.

A dispatch of San Juan, P. R., says the earthquake shock was felt there at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. The vibrations ran from north to south and lasted ten seconds. No damage far been reported.

OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED.

Council of Knights Kadosh, Scottish Rite Masons to Elect Tonight.

A meeting will be held tonight in Masonic Temple at 7:30 o'clock of Randolph Chapter of Rose Croix, Scottish Rite Masons. Following the meeting of this body Lafayette Council of Knights Kadosh will meet at which time officers for the year will be elected.

RESIGNED TO HIS FATE.

Anxious to be Electrocuted, as He Wants to Get Back Home.

Benjamin Bailey, colored, who was tried at the May term of the Fairfax court for committing a criminal assault upon a little white girl, and sentenced to be electrocuted on the 11th instant, but was granted a respite until August 8th by Governor Mann, until he could make further investigation into the mental condition of the prisoner, has written a letter, it is said, to his mother, in which he says he is well, and that he is to be "electrocuted, whatever that is," sometime soon, adding that he wishes they would "make haste and do it," as he wants to get back home!

RESIGNATION REQUESTED.

R. W. P. Garnett Will Relinquish Duties as Clerk of DistrictCourt.

Joseph Brady, Clerk of the United States District Court, has requested R. W. P. Garnett, clerk of the court in this city, to send in his resignation. Mr. Garnett will continue however to hold the position of United States Commissioner.

The reason given for the retirement of Mr Garnett is the growing business of the court and the alleged need of a younger man.

Mr. Garnett has been an employe of the United States Court for a long time. He became commissioner in place of John S. Fowler, who died in 1903.

CARDINALS PLAY FORT HUNT.

The game between the Cardinals and the soldier boys from Fort Hunt. to be played in the baseball park Saturday, July 26th, should be the the star game of the season. Last Saturday the Cardinals and Fort Hunt batted for eleven innings before a decision could be reached. In the Cardinals half of the eleventh inning with the score a tie (2 to 2), the home lads trotted three runs over the plate. thus winning the game. The contest will commence at 5 p. m.

EXCURSION YESTERDAY.

A Large Crowd Lend Their Presence on the Occasion of the Policemen's Excursion.

When the heart is bowed down with a weight of woe and the sky is overcast with clouds and one feels that life is not worth living, and the thought dawns on you that there is a chance to dispel the present difficulties by taking a trip with the "finest,' 'you are very apt to be like the busy bee, you will improve each shining hour. Well, to make a long story short, the "limbs of the law" went ta Marshall Hall yesterday. Aside from a shower that dampened the beautiful lawn it was an ideal day and it goes without saying it was a congenial crowd. But this is not all, the committee distributed cracker jack and razzle dazzle to the young folks and merriment ruled the hour. Policemen are generally a bugaboo to the young folks, but on this occasion they were so agreeable that one could hardly believe they were minions of the law. Everything passed off quietly and it was pronounced the greatest success pulled off by the policemen. When one needs to meet with success and have a guarantee with it they should carry the Banner Young.

NOTED MILITANT SAID TO BE DYING

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst Battle-Scarred But Unconquered.

IS GROWING WEAKER.

Transfusion of Blood Operation Resorted to in Attempt to Save Life of Suffragette.

London, July 25.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, battle-scarred but unconquored leader of the British militant suffragettes, today is dying. She has been subjected to a transfusion of blood operation in a desperate attempt to save her life.

The transfusion was administered after a consultation among several of the most eminent physicians of London. Since her starvation period, Mrs. Pankhurst has grown steadily weaker and more emaciated, until now her condition is really grave.

Even those who are radically opposed to woman suffrage and have no sympathy whatever with Mrs. Pankhurst's cause, no longer sneer at the aged leader. They admit that whatever right or wrong the untamed woman has the spirit of a martyr and the courage of her convictions.

Physicians and friends have felt the gravest anxiety for Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst leader of the militant suffragettes, and she was again released from Holloway jail yesterday under Home Secretary McKenna's cat and mouse act.

She spent a restless and very unsatisfactory night at the nursing home to which she was conveyed in an ambulance from the prison, and her physicians today said they could see no trace of improvement in her condition. Close friends to the leader said they would not be surpised if Mrs. Pankhurst should die at any time.

ELLA FLAGG YOUNG QUITS.

Chicago High-Priced School Superintendent Finds Politics Too Much.

Chicago, July 25.—Mrs. Ella Flagg Young superintendent of Public Schools in Chicago, since 1909 has announced her resignation. Mrs. Young gave no reason for resigning, but said her intentions had been known for some time to members of the board of education. Lack of harmony between Mrs. Young and the board of education is said to be the cause. The board has changed complexion politically with change of administration since Mrs. Young's appointment and she has found it difficult recently to effectuate her plans.

"I can fight for principle; I can fight for another person, but I am too old to fight for myself,' said Mrs. Young today.

Mrs. Young is 68 years old. She has been a schoolteacher since 1862, president of the State Board of Education, president of the National Education Association, in 1910-11 and is one of the most prominent women educators in the United States. Her appointment as superintendent of the Chicago schools at an annual salary of $10,000 was a sensation at the time.

Her administration of the position has developed many branches of training here, particularly along the line of vocational education and improvement of teachers' positions.

A dispatch from St. Thomas, D. W. I., says St. Thomas and the neighboring islands experienced a prolonged and unusually sever earthquake early yesterday. No damage has so far bene reported.

MEETING OF AUTOISTS

Important Business Transacted Last Night By Alexandria Organization

Possibly one of the most interesting and most important in the matter of new business to the automobile owners who are members of the Alexandria Association was a meeting held last night at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

After some discussion, membership in the State and National Automobile Association was definitely decided upon by the members of the local club. Correspondence between the secretary of the Alexandria Club and the chairman of the executive boards of the larger state and national organizations was read, after which application for membership were made out and forwarded to the two organiations.

The business thus disposed of is of the greatest importance and should prove of paramount interest to every owner of an automobile in this city and nearby counties, for by holding a membership in the local automobile club the auto owner becomes a member of both the Virginia State and National organizations which carries with it certain privileges and conveniencies that will prove of benefit to any party touring the state or making cross country trips.

The National Automobile Association has a chain of club rooms connecting the majority of the larger cities, and also prepares and prints road and touring maps, looks after legislation of importance to the automobile owner and otherwise looks after the interest of the automobile men.

With the adoption by the Alexandria Automobile Club of a new constitution and by-laws some weeks ago, several new offices were created which were filled at last night's meeting, the former constitution not having made any provision for a vice-president and for a board of governors.

William H. Hellmuth was elected vice-president of the association and the following were named to serve as a board of governors: Harry Hammond, P. O. Cockey, C. C. Lamond, and A. M. Remshel.

The committee on highways, composed of R. L. Meyers, W. H. Hellmuth, George Washington Lewis, R. D. Brumback, and Wallace Lindsey, was directed to post the road to Mount Vernon with proper notices as to directions, as it is well known that a large number of transient visitors travel by automobile to Mount Vernon during each year, and quite often are delayed in reaching their destination through following the wrong route. It is the intention of the Alexandria club to mark nearly every county road near Alexandria, especially the crossroads as fast as it is possible to do the work.

WOMAN IS SERIOUSLY CUT

Gus Marshall Slashes Lena Jackson - Woman Unable to Appear in Police Court

Early last night Officers Young and Talbot were summoned to what is known as McCuen's alley, on south side of Gibbon street, between Columbus and Alfred. Gus Marshall, a negro, had, it was alleged, cut Lena Jackson, a negress. The man and woman had been drinking, and Marshall charged the latter with having $2.25 in her possession belonging to him. When she refused to give up the money the attack followed.

Both were taken in custody, but upon arriving at the station house the woman was allowed to depart for the purpose of securing surgical attention. She was cut across the abdomen and on one of her legs.

The Jackson woman was unable to appear this morning and Marshall will be held.

The police say the accused has a record for cutting.

The young women have given descriptions of their assailant and it is hoped he will be eventually hunted down. NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

AMUSEMENTS AT OCEAN VIEW.

Promoters Must Answer Charge of Violating Law.

Ocean View, Va., July 25.—All parties operating amusemnt devices and soda fountains at Ocean View were served with warrants Wednesday charging them with operating their business on Sunday in violation of the Sunday closng laws.

Chief of Police A. J. Backus swore out the warrants against the various people engaged in business at Ocean View and served the warrants on them. They immediately gave bond for their appearance before Justice of the Peace Carmine for trial.

It is thought that Justice Carmine will set a day this week for the trial of all the cases. Attorney Moe Levy, of Norfolk, represents all of the parties for whom warrants were secured by Chief of Police Backus for violation of the Sabbath law.

After the warrants had been served Wednesday the various parties continued their business after giving bond for their appearance before Justice Carmine.

TOWN SWARMS WITH NEGROES.

"Lily White" Place Now Claims Many Negroes—Many go to Court.

Freeling, Va., Juy 25.—The little mountain town of Clintwood, the capital of Dickenson county is almost swarmed with colored men on the occasion of the present term of Circuit Court.

Some of these sons of Ham are defending themselves against charges preferred, others are attending their summons from court, while doabtless a few are present through curiosity.

Two years ago Dickenson county was called "lily white" but the Clinchfield, Carolina and Ohio railroad has changed the complexion of the county.

Prior to the advent of this railroading outfit, there were people in the county who had never seen a colored man, and the sight of so many of them at the little town was quite a show.

The colored contingent is much in evidence along the east of the county, but no negroes are to be seen in the west end except those that oscillate between the Consolidation Coal Company's collieres, at Jenkins, Ky., and the new line of railroad now being built along McClue Creek, in Dickenson county.

Clifton Forge, Va., July 25.—Miss Nellie Farrar, daughter of George M. Farrar, a business man of this city, was drowned yesterday in Cowpasture River, near Griffith. The young lady was with a party of friends on an outing and was in bathing when the accident occurred.

Miss Farrar was swept by a current into deep water. Her body remained under water for nearly an hour. When the news reached the city a physician went to the scene, but arrived too late to be of any service.

She was 18 years old. She was a student of the State Normal School. in Harrisonburg for the last two years.

One Farmer Kills Another.

Buchannan, Va., July 25.—William Broughman and Lane Hill, farmers of Roaring Run neighborhood, engaged in an altercation yesterday evening and Hill shot and killed Broughman. He immediately surrendered to Sheriff L. P. Mundy.

HEBREW MERCHANT FINED.

Received Goods on Saturday Fined in Police Court.

Norfolk, July 25.—Ten Hebrew merchants were in the Police Court Wednesday morning on warrants charging them with having violated the Sunday labor law of Virginia.

In each of the ten cases, with the exception of M. Lerborwitz, the merchants were charged with having opened their stores to receive goods delivered to them by wholesale houses for the Sunday trade during the day time of Saturday when they are supposed to have been closed.

Lerborlitz was found with his store open and a customer on the inside making a purchase at 5:30 on Saturday afternoon, July 5. Justice Thomas heard each case separately and fined them $5 and cost.

At the conclusion of the cases he informed each of ten merchants and told them that he construed the receiving of goods on Saturday for Sunday's sales a violation of the law and that they must keep their stores closed within the hours prescribed by law from sundown Friday night to sundown Saturday night. Nothing must be received for the use of the store during the hours prescribed, with the exception of ice which the court stated was a necessity.

CHARGES AGAINST CHIEF.

Attempt is Made to Oust Head of Norfolk County Force.

Norfolk, July 25.—Charges were preferred to Judge Lawless in the Circuit Court of Norfolk county yesterday against A. J. Backus, chief of police of Norfolk county. against whom Judge Lawless issued a rule, requiring him to appear in court next Monday morning.

Complaints of the Norfolk county police chief are contained in the following petition:

"We, the undersigned citizens and property owners of Norfolk county, do hereby respectfully represent unto your Honor that A. J. Backus, the chief of police of Norfolk county, is incompetent to hold such a position, and we charge that there are now in existence at Ocean View and its adjacent territory, places where intoxicating liquors can be bought on Sunday; also where such liquors are sold without a state or city license. We also charge that there are several places known as gambling houses, where all kinds of games of chance are played with money. We also charge that there are several questionable houses at or near Ocean View.

"For these reasons we respectfully represent unto your Honor that the said A. J. Backus should be removed from office as chief of police of Norfolk county, the request that we be heard before your Honor at as early date as possible."

Seven sticks of dynamite which John Everitt was carrying in a basket out of a shed in the heart of the town of Honeyo, N. Y., yesterday morning exploded and blew him to pieces. The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

CHURCH ADOPTS DANGEROUS PRECEDENT.

The participation by pastors of Churches in politics has been one of the growing influences of the period but few denominational associations have taken as decided a step as the Dover Baptist Association which adopted a set of temperance resolutions containing the following declaration:

"An effective way to prevent the spread of intemperance is by legislation. When the State licenses the liquor traffic, it becomes a party to the evil; the people who vote for license are really in partnership with the liquor business. We urge upon our people the duty of supporting those men for public office who favor the destruction of this foe to the home, the church and the State.

"Our sermons, prayers and resolutions amount to little if, when a moral issue is involved, we fail to support those candidates who favor temperance measures."

The Newport News Press asks the question: Is it not going pretty far toward putting the church into politics when church members are admonished to vote only for officers who are in favor of prohibition? And is it not inviting damagogues to espouse the cause of prohibition for the sake of riding into office? And is it quite fair to say that all men who hold that license is better than prohibition as a means of controlling the liquor traffic are "party to the liquor evil? Is it not the same thing as saying that those who believe in licensing the opium traffic are party to the evils of opium eating?

We do not think the cause of temperance is helped by such extreme and intolerant doctrine as this. The law licensing the sale of alcoholic liquors is regulative and restrictive and license does not mean license in the broad significance of that term. Very far from it. No other traffic except the traffic in poisonous drugs is hedged about by so many restrictive regulations and not a few good citizens who are temperate in their habits and who earnestly desire to see the liquor evil reduced to the minimum, are conscientious in the belief that regulation of law is better and more effective than prohibition. It is a bold assumption, therefore, when an influential denomination asserts, ex cathedra, that all such citizens are "parties to the evil".

The Baptist church has always prided itself on its democracy and has insisted that the Jeffersonian doctrine of complete separation of church and state must be maintained. But the admonition that all members of that church are in duty bound to vote only for officers who favor prohibition laws is strangely inconsistent with that doctrine.

Of course, the Dover association has not issued a positive instruction to its members, but its declaration is almost equivalent to a decree of the church, and those who do not observe it will have the stamp of the church's disapproval upon them.

Again, if the church is going to adopt the policy of instructing its members how to vote in one direction, why not in all directions?

We speak in profound respect for this great and noble denomination and we know that the action of the Dover association is taken in the interest of public morals, according to the lights and convictions of the leaders. But we have grave doubts as to the wisdom of that policy. It is dangerous precedent. The church is well within its rights when it makes a rule that its members must not drink intoxicating liquors or engage in the liquor traffic, or dance, or play cards, or attend the theatre, or engage in any worldly amusements. But when it undertakes to direct voters as to how they shall cast their ballots, it not only trespasses upon the domain of the State, but strikes at the very foundations of civil government.

DANIELS ADVOCATES COMPULSORY VOTING.

State laws compelling the citizens to exercise the privilege of the ballot were advocated yesterday by Secretary Daniels, of the Navy Department, speaking at Long Beach, Cal., at a luncheon in his honor.

"We have too large a class of citizens," he said, "generally well educated and well-to-do, who abdicate the kingly right of suffrage. A way should be found to make it easy for them to vote, to then require it of them. There is hardly an election anywhere in the country, outside of presidential years, where the issue is not carried by a minority of the electorate. There should be a law by which all officers and enlisted men in the army and navy, all other public officers who are employed away from their place or residences, all college students who are of age, and all drummers, and railroad men can vote by mail."

Mr. Daniels is wise in his day and gneration. All citizens should vote as it as much a duty as a privilege to take part in selecting representatives of the people.

In many communities the disastrous result incident to allowing elections to go by default is too often apparent when irresponsible and reckless people are found in positions, and they are shown to be misfits. When public affairs go wrong the class of people who almost invariably "go fishing" on election days, are the first to complain.

There is hardly a community in the land in which the dire consequences of such apathy is not aparent. Men who are capable of filling responsible complimentary positions refuse them when they are offered on silver plates and in many instances will not take the time to cast their ballots. Such deveiction brings about cries of "machines" and "rings" when public affairs are not proceding to suit everybody.

At whose door should the blame be placed?

WHY TURN OUT THE OLD "VET?"

For what reason should Judge Samuel W. Williams be denied a second term as Attorney General of Virginia?? Why turn out the old Confederate soldier and Democrat for younger Democrats who have plenty of time to wait. Both Mr. Pollard and Mr. Cummings are comparatively young men and can abide their time, while Judge Williams belongs to a class of our citizens who are rapidly passing away, and only a few passing years will mark an era in our country's history when there will be no "Old Confed" for any office.

In the name of the surviving Confederate veterans who come almost as a single man in their support of their comrade, Judge Williams for attorney general of Virginia at the coming primary on the 5th of August, the Herald, without apology speaks and calls upon the voters to go to the polls on that date and cast a vote for Sam Williams. A better Democrat never drew the breath of life and his record as attorney general has been such as to entitle him to a second term. We cannot believe that the Democrats of Virginia will vote against him after considerate reflection. It is not right to turn him out with only one term since he has made good by saving the state thousands of dollars and proving faithful according to the report of the Auditor of the State.—Suffolk Herald.

FOR SEPARATE POSTOFFICE.

Bristol Residents Object to Going to Bristol, Tenn., For Mail.

Washington, July 25.—Accompanied by 50 prominent business men of Bristol, Va., Senators Martin and Swanson, of Virginia, yesterday appealed to President Wilson to order the re-establishment of the postoffice at Bristol, Va., which recently was discontinued because of the existance of a postoffice at Bristol, Tenn.

Bristol is on the State line. The Virginians told the President that they did not like to go out of their own state to get their mail, even though the walk was only two blocks. The President promised to take up the matter with Postmaster General Burleson.

SUMMER VEGETABLES.

Seasonable Fruits Becoming Plentiful at Reasonable Prices.

The market tomorrow will open with a well-filled display of most every vegetable the particular buyer could wish for, and the quality it may be remarked, will be found the best.

Some of the finest and sweetest cantaloupes ever sold here are now coming in, selling at 10 cents each, or two for 25c for the larger ones. Sweet watermelons are as low as 35 cents. The finest Georgia peaches sell at 65 cents a basket.

New potatoes are firmly established and may be had in quantities at 35 cents a peck. Sweet potatoes are now getting cheaper and will soon be in larger demand when the supply becomes greater.

California fruits, such as pears and large plums are appearing. Florida pineapples are not so plentiful as they were several weeks ago. They sell at 10 to 15 cents each.

Good head lettuce and nice green onions, beets and young turnips are coming in in larger quantities.

The meat market is still at the same level established last week when the prices on the best beef and some grades of pork went up from one to two cents a pound. On the whole however, the price of meats may be said to be as reasonable as may be expected, in the face of the great shortage in the supply of beef cattle. Poultry brings 30 cents a pound, while hens are not being disposed of by the farmers. Eggs sell for 28 cents a dozen for fresh country, and butter still holds firm at 35 and 40 cents a pound.

Button, Button, Who's Got the Button?

Most Everybody Now Has the Famous Hot Springs Liver Buttons.

Dangerous Calomel Not Needed.

Since Hot Springs Liver Buttons were created, constipation, lazy liver and all their train of consequent sufferings have been unnecessary. Headaches, dullness and heavyness, poor complexion and irritability leave when constipation does; and constipation leaves for good when Hot Springs Liver Buttons are used.

Throw Away Calomel Right Now.

Calomel and all similar drugs are dangerous. Everybody knows that, and yet some continue to use them under the impression that it is necessary to rack their systems and suffer the ill effects in order to end constipation.

Hot Springs Liver Buttons are unfailing, thorough, pleasant in action, and leave none of the bad after effects true of more drastic drugs containing calomel, salts or oil. They will cleanse the bowels of the accumulated body refuse that poisons the blood. Thus headaches, dullness and nervous irritability quickly pass away. You will feel like a new person in a few hours.

ANOTHER MRS. CANDLE.

Slept During Day to Keep Spouse Awake During Night.

Atlanta, July 25.—The man who works all day to keep the pot boiling at home generally believes his lot hard enough, but E. R. Sweat tells a story in petition just filed in divorce courts against his wife, Mrs. Blanche Sweat, which will make the average man believe himself lucky.

Sweat declares that his wife has recently formed the habit of sleeping all day long in order to be awake and in good trim at night in order to nag him and keep him awake all through the "snooky ookum" hours.

Of course, he might spend the night with friends, but he is of a home-loving disposition, and says he finds small pleasure in the thought of living in a hotel while wife awaits at home.

He also adds that his wife has tried to poison him by placing pulverized glass in his coffee cup, has tossed the sugar bowl at him and slapped him in the presence of strangers.

Miss Margret Wilson, daughter of the President, yesterday fought fire and was the calmest of numerous almost panic-stricken guests who had been driven from their hotel by a blaze in a cottage ner Eagles Mere Pa., At first, like the rest, Miss Wilson ran out into the driving rain but later returned and directed the servants to remove her belongings She then collected half a dozen young women and started fighting the flames. She mingled with firemen, led the work in cottages adjoining, and gave practical suggestions.

LIGHTNING PLAYS PRANKS.

Also Burns Two Persons Badly h. New York.

New York, July 25.—A bolt of lightning entered the window of the office of the United States Gum Tape Company yesterday afternoon and struck O. G. Prior, president of the concern, and Miss Fleishmann, his stenographer, hurling them from their chairs. Prior was badly burned on head and suffered severely from shock. The stenographer received a few bruises from the fall.

Prior was dictating to Miss Fleishmann when the lightning entered the window, which was partly raised.

Dr. A. J Sa...er of 127 Liberty street, was called by telephone. He found a long seared welt running down the right side of Prior's head. His clothing was singed. Mr. Prior responded to treatment and was soon able to be taken to his home in Montclair, N. J., in a ta...ieah.

Miss Fleishmann was also revived and was taken to her home suffering from nervous hysteria.

The lightning played freakish pranks at Prior's desk. It blew all the ink out of the well on the desk and scattered it over the papers and floor. The sheet of paper from which Prior was dictating to the stenographer was burned full of little holes like those made with the end of a cigarette and one corner of Miss Fleishmann's notebook was singed.

WHEEL BABY 250 MILES.

Penniless Couple Seeks Haven in New York's Salvation Army.

New York, July 25.—Destitute, exhausted and almost nervous wrecks, Mr. and Mrs. William Lockhard, of Bangor, Pa., reached New York a day or two ago from Boston, after having walked 250 miles, pushing before them a gocart containing their two-year baby. Lockhard said he was induced to leave Bangor for Boston by an employment shark who told him he would give him a job as teamster there. The man took Lockhard's furniture to Boston, declaring he would install it in a home, and have it prepared for them. Lockhard soon followed, discovering he had been imposed upon, and, being penniless, decided to walk, with his family to their old home, depending upon charity for sustenance. They slept by the roadsides, and Lockhard declared that his advances at homes for food were rudely repulsed. They lived on one scant meal a day, until arriving here, waek and hunger, they sought aid at the headquarters of the Salvation Army.

In speaking of his trip, Lockhard told how he asked for a bottle of milk for his baby. The farmer poured the milk into a bottle, and when he found they could not pay for it, poured it back into his can The couple were today furnished with a change of clothing, a square meal and transportation to their home.

TRAMP AS LIFESAVER.

Finds Sleeping Farmer in Peril on Burning Wagon.

Trenton, July 25.—A tramp, passing along the Edinburg Road late Tuesday night, saved Isaac Robbins, a farmer living near Mercerville, fro mbeing cremated while asleep on his wagon. Robbins lapsed into slumber while driving home from a meeting in the town. His lighted pipe fell and ignited some straw in the bottom of the wagon.

The wagon was partly in flames when the tramp aroused the sleeper. The fire was put out and the tramp continued on his way, carrying a liberal financial reward.
